Return to CIA Library

In February 1949, subordinates of Nguyen An Khang (Vuong Minh Son)*, Chief of the "liaison bureau" of the Phuc Quoc in Canton, went to Kwangsi to "train" 200 Vietnamese in that province. These Phuc Quoc representatives intended to ask the Governor of Kwangsi to release to them the arms taken from the 200 Vietnamese when they originally crossed the border into China. They were not too confident that the Governor would grant their request.
